YEAR OF MERCY A.C.S.A. DEBT REDUCTION

The Diocese of Springfield in Illinois has offered parishes that owe past Annual Catholic Services Appeal (A.C.S.A.) a one-time opportunity to pay off their 2011-2014 A.C.S.A. debt. Now until December 31st for each dollar donated to the Year of Mercy A.C.S.A. Debt Reduction Campaign, the Diocese will take off a dollar; so folks, this is a 2 for 1 proposition. St. Patrick's currently owes $31,386.77 for past 2011-2014 A.C.S.A. (FYI: St. Patrick's owes $22,992 for 2015 and our assessment for 2016 is $29,000). Please make a serious decision to help St. Pat's reach our goal of paying off the A.C.S.A. debt. Make out all checks to A.C.S.A., memo: Year of Mercy A.C.S.A. – St. Pat's – Pana. We can all help make a dent in paying off our debt, especially with this one time offer. Please use the enclosed envelopes provided.

A.C.S.A. YEAR OF MERCY CAMPAIGN UPDATE

So far, St. Patrick's has received $12,191 in cash and checks toward our debt of $54,379.20. With diocesan matching funds, that brings us to a total of $24,382 towards our parish debt.

NEW MARRIAGE RITE TO BEGIN IN DECEMBER

The Rite of Marriage will now be known as Order of Celebrating Matrimony with the updates to take effect December 8th, 2016. Recently, the revised Roman Missal "Mass and Mass Parts" were introduced into the practice of the life of the CHURCH. This followed (by a decade) revised readings for Sundays and Weekdays. In this long process of revisions and rewording of our liturgical practices, the implementation is done in small periodic steps. With the readings and the Mass changes now being used, the focus is on the sacraments of Matrimony and Confirmation. (There is a new Confirmation Rite as well.)

The Matrimony Ceremony will not change much except for a few nuances in wording and language choices. One noticeable change is that the "Gloria" will be included in the Rite of Matrimony. Plus, the new rite prohibits the inclusion of the Unity Candle. Some additional "cultural additions" are being included to the Matrimony Rite, such as coin exchange and placing a lazo or cord around the couples' hands. Besides the addition of a "Gloria" and no Unity Candle, the celebration of Matrimony will not change much.
