Another farming story. We do not live in a perfect world. Shocking? Not really, not if we pay attention. Today's farming story shows, because of evil action, that weeds and grain grow together. So, where do we find hope? Disciples find it in Jesus; find it in God who is just, who is kind, who is forgiving.

- How do I live in this world without giving up?
- What good “seed” do I plant and water?
- What is the harvest I seek?

Andrew Mukosa, OFM Conv., representing the Province of Our Lady of Consolation of the Conventual Franciscans, will be preaching at the July 29-30 weekend Masses for the Mission Appeals. He is also presenting for his home province in Zambia. Father helps run a school founded by the friars in Zambia. He has been to the United States before and the parishes he went to seem to have enjoyed him. He will be speaking for the communities' missions in India and Sri Lanka, Zambia, and Central America. The friars wish to thank you in advance for any generosity you could give to this important work.
