Needing to be quiet. We hear today of the need to “get away” – Elijah, pursued by Jezebel, is running for his very life; Jesus, dismissing the crowd, goes off to pray. Both do this alone. Both hear God speak in a tiny sound, in a single small whisper. The point may be this: nothing we see and nothing we hear is too insignificant to make present the glory of God. God is always there to save me, save us.

- When will I, each day this week, make time to be still?
- When will I listen for God's single small whisper?
- Elijah is told: “The Lord will be passing by.” How can I look for God everywhere?
